JAMES N. SAUNDERS

IS CHOSEN NEW GRAND MASTER OF KENTUCKY MASONS

Supreme Office In Great Order Conferred Upon Stanford Man by Grand Lodge This Week.

James N. Saunders, a member of Lincoln lodge No. 60, Free and Accepted Masons, of Stanford, was at Louisville this week, elevated to the eminent position of Grand Master of Kentucky Masons, the supreme honor in the great and noble fraternity of Masonry that can be conferred upon a member of the order. That he will in every way measure up to the loftiest traditions of the rank, and the highest standard ever set by any officer of this ancient and honorable order, his brothers of Lincoln lodge, and the people among whom he lives and moves daily, know to be well assured and without shadow of a doubt. Lincoln lodge, Stanford and Lincoln county feel it an honor to them as well as to their brother and fellow citizen that the Masons of Kentucky should have selected this man, out of the thousands of members of this order, to sit in the most exalted chair in the Grand Lodge. The honor is well and worthy bestowed, and gavel of the Grand Master will be faithfully and fairly and impartially wielded in the hands of this man at all times and upon all conditions.

The election of Mr. Saunders came in the usual rotation of officials of the Grand Lodge, he having served as Deputy Grand Master during the past year. As many as possible of the local Masons who could go, attended the Grand Lodge this year for they felt a personal interest in the elevation of their brother member to the high post he now fills. All testify to the beauty and solemnity of the occasion. Those who heard the speech of acceptance of the new Grand Master, say that he fairly outdid himself in eloquence and fervor. It is customary upon such an important occasion for the home lodge of the newly elected Grand Master to be first to present him with a floral tribute upon his ascension to the order's highest chair. This was done on behalf of the Lincoln lodge No. 60 by Joseph Hopper, of this city, now attending the Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Louisville. Young Hopper's address to the Grand Lodge and the new Grand Master in making this presentation, is said to have been a gem in every way, and to have held the breathless attention of the entire membership of the Grand Lodge. Then followed Grand Master Saunders' short speech in response, which is said to have been equally as beautiful in tenor and language. And so impressed was the membership of the Grand Lodge by these three speeches, that it was moved and carried, though almost unprecedented in the history of the Grand Lodge, that these three speeches be written out and incorporated in the official proceedings of the Grand Lodge sessions of 1916.

Other Masons of Lincoln county who have long taken an active part in Grand Lodge proceedings were honored at the session, Dr. T. W. Pennington, of Stanford being appointed Grand Senior Deacon and Stanley P. Stephenson, of Hustonville, Grand Pursuivant. The entire list of appointive Grand officers as named by Grand Master Saunders is as follows:

A great many warm friends in this section were gratified by the election of Hon. Henry S. McElroy, of Lebanon, as Grand Junior Warden, which puts him in line for Grand Master in a few years. Other officers of the Grand Lodge were advanced in office by progression, save that Grand Secretary Dave Jackson and Grand Treasurer John H. Leathers were re-elected. Retiring Grand Master T. J. Adams reported that there now are in the Masonic Widows and Orphans' Home in Louisville 26 widows, 132 girls and 184 boys. An increase of the assessment on each Mason for the home from 75 cents to $1 was recommended. The report of Grand Secretary Jackson showed a total of 592 Masonic lodges now exist in Kentucky with a total membership of 43,387, an increase during the year of 993. James Garnett, chairman of the educational trustees of the Grand Lodge, reported that 16 children above the age of 16 years, the age limit fixed for wards of the Home, had been placed in various schools of the state for higher vocational education. There will be about the same number to be cared for next June, he announced.

Teddy Couldn't Stop Special Very Late So No Stop Was Made for Speech Here.

Col. Theodore Roosevelt, ex-president of the United States, and touring the country on behalf of Hughes, the republican candidate for president, disappointed some 1,200 or 1,500 people here Wednesday night, when his special train "highballed" on through Stanford, and did not stop for Teddy to make a speech as he had been advertised to do. The special was running very late, however, due to the fact that Roosevelt's speeches consumed more time than had been anticipated. The train did not pass through Stanford until about 6:15 when it was scheduled here for 4:33. It was necessary that no stops be made at small towns in order for Roosevelt to get to Louisville in time for his night speech there.

Republicans, Democrats, Bull Moose and every other sort of voter gathered here by hundreds from this and surrounding counties to see the Terrible Teddy, and hear what he had to say. King Swope, of Danville, and other local speakers entertained the crowd during its long wait. Roosevelt was heard by a tremendous crowd at Louisville, where he bitterly attacked President Wilson and his peaceful policies. His speech was almost entirely a personal attack upon President Wilson. By ridicule and abuse of the foreign policy of Mr. Wilson, he sought to show why the Republican party should be restored to power. He said the President had been guilty of the following:

"Yielding to force in the enactment of the Adamson eight-hour law for railroad men;

"Failing to hold Germany to strict accountability for the invasion of Belgium;

"Saying he was 'too proud to fight' over the murder of 1,394 men, women and children on the Lusitania;

"Failing to protect property rights of American citizens against Great Britain's blockade;

"Prostituting America's National honor to Mexican bandits, in return for which he has won only a venomous and treacherous hostility to the United States;

"Instead of speaking softly and carrying a 'big stick' President Wilson spoke bombastically and carried a disrag," said Colonel Roosevelt.

Burglar Pleads Guilty

Maywood Marauder Is Held to Grand Jury Under $300 Bond

Wm. Cunningham, the young burglar who created something of a sensation around Maywood and vicinity by robbing the home of Theo Noland and the store of W. P. Stephenson early last week, was held to await the action of the grand jury by County Judge Bailey at his examining trial Tuesday. Cunningham pled guilty and was sent to jail as he could not give the $300 bond required.

E. V. Sizemore, of the South Fork section, who is charged with having struck Daniel Owens with a corn knife, was held to the grand jury under $150 bond in county court this week, and was also put under a peace bond of $250 both of which he furnished and was released.

Joseph Randolph Huston, a young negro, charged with breach of the peace, in that he fired a rifle at another boy, was fined $5 and costs which he paid into court. The pickpocketing who is only 11 years of age claimed that he was running when he fell and the rifle was accidentally discharged.

Earl Carson, colored, who was charged with attacking Fred Nikola, a well known resident of the Ottenheim section, was acquitted at his trial in county court.

COL. FARRIS LANDS AGAIN

Colonel George T. Farris, of Lancaster, was appointed executive marshal in Governor Stanley's office to succeed B. F. Williams, who becomes steward of the Feeble-minded Institute. Colonel Farris, who is helping at the Democratic state headquarters will not go to Frankfort until after the election.

Bull Moose For Wilson

Covington Progressive To Speak In Lincoln—Other Speaking Dates

No stone is being left unturned by the democrats to acquaint the voters of Lincoln county with the issues involved in the present campaign. Speakers are billed for almost every night from now to election day and the importance of every citizen who loves his home and his country going to the polls and voting for Woodrow Wilson and the entire democratic ticket, is being impressed upon all.

Announcement was made this week by County Attorney W. S. Burch, who is making the speaking appointments over the county, that Hon. Andrew F. Adkins, a former Progressive, of Covington, and said to be a splendid speaker, has been secured for an address in Lincoln. Mr. Adkins has been billed to speak at King's Mountain, on Thursday evening, October 26th at 7 o'clock. The Woodrow Wilson Club, of King's Mountain will meet at that hour and Mr. Adkins will speak to the club members and all other citizens are invited to hear him. Mr. Adkins is one of the Progressives who did not follow Roosevelt in his betrayal of that party to the Republican Old Guard, but realizes that Woodrow Wilson has done more to carry out progressive principles during his one term than all the republican presidents the country has had since Lincoln. Mr. Adkins, as a progressive, is urging members of his party to vote for Wilson this year as offering the only real hope for continuance of progressive legislation.

Hon. Orie S. Ware, who is already well known in this county both by reason of having married Miss Louise Culbertson, related to many Lincoln families, and thru the fact that he is a Past Grand Master of the Masonic order, is billed for two speeches in Lincoln next week at Waynesburg, on Wednesday evening, Oct. 25th and at Hustonville, on Thursday evening, Oct. 26th, both speaking beginning at 7 o'clock. Mr. Ware is a splendid speaker and a charming gentleman in every way and large crowds will undoubtedly be present on both occasions to hear him.

A speaking date has been made for J. S. Owsley and W. H. Shanks of this city at Rowland on Saturday night, October 28th at 7 o'clock. Splendid crowds are turning out at all of the Democratic speaking appointments in the county and an unusual amount of interest seems to be manifested in the present campaign. Workers who have gone over the county say that they never before in a campaign have they seen so many men who ordinarily vote the republican ticket in an election, boldly come out and say they intend to vote for Wilson this time. They say that they do not want to take a chance on this nation being plunged into the horrors of war; that Wilson has kept it at peace so far and there's no use in taking such a dangerous chance at such a critical period in the country's history. Other speaking engagements for the county so far announced are as follows:

Wilson's School House—Saturday, October 21, 7 p. m., Prof. W. M. Bengel, Herbert Reynolds, W. S. Burch.
Mt. Salem—Monday, October 23, 7 p. m., T. J. Hill, Jr., W. S. Burch.
Hugh Jacobs' Store—Tuesday, October 24, 7 p. m., Kelly J. Francis, T. J. Hill, Jr.

Goshen—Monday, October 30, 7 p. m., Kelly J. Francis, W. S. Burch.

Waynesburg—October 25, 7 p. m., Hon. Orie S. Ware.
Hustonville—October 26, 7 p. m., Hon. Orie S. Ware.

King's Mountain—October 26, 7 p. m., Hon. Andrew F. Adkins.
Rowland—Saturday, October 28, 7 p. m., J. S. Owsley and W. H. Shanks.

PUT A HOT ONE TO TEDDY.

When Roosevelt arrived in Cincinnati Wednesday morning, a "night letter" was delivered to him from former Vice Mayor Frank L. Pfaff, of Cincinnati, asking the Colonel to answer certain questions relative to the German-American vote. Mr. Pfaff is Secretary-Treasurer of the Cincinnati Wilson Business Men's League.

The Colonel was asked to say if he has assurances from Mr. Hughes that if the latter is elected he will carry out the warlike policies which the Colonel advocates, and whether or not Mr. Hughes indorses the insults heaped upon German-American citizens by Mr. Roosevelt. So far as reported to the newspapers, Mr. Roosevelt ignored the questions asked him by Mr. Pfaff.

WALTON SELLS THE REGISTER.

Both Richmond papers announce this week that Ed C. Walton, formerly of this city, has sold the Richmond Register, which he bought about three weeks ago from Tom Pickels, to Grant C. Lilly, owner of the Climax-Madisonian of that city. Mr. Lilly will run both papers, placing his wife in charge of the Register. Mr. Walton's plans are unknown but his many friends hope he will come back to Stanford to stay this time.

JOHN SHANKS SELLS OUT

News has been received by relatives and friends here that John H. Shanks has sold his interests in the W. E. Cody Company, horse and mule dealers, and may leave Columbus, Ga., and locate elsewhere in the south. It is understood that Mr. Shanks received a handsome profit on his investment.

London Bank Embezzler

Arraigned Before Judge Cochran In Federal Court This Week

Echo of embezzlement of funds of the First National Bank, of London, Ky., for which McCall Fitzgerald, cashier, now doing five years at Atlanta, Ga., Penitentiary, was heard in Federal Court at Covington Tuesday, F. W. Weitzel, Washington, D. C., receiver for the bank, was indicted on five counts charging embezzlement when serving in his capacity as a United States officer—one count for alleging making of false entry on 20 counts for alleged embezzlement as receiver. This, it is said, is the only case of its kind to have come to the notice of Federal Court.

At the time of Fitzgerald's arrest, B. Catching, President of the bank, also was indicted by Federal Court at Covington on 16 counts, charging embezzlement, but never has been arraigned.

Charges against Weitzel were made by A. E. Badert, expert accountant of the United States Department of Justice. He was put in charge April 1, 1914. In two weeks he uncovered alleged shortages in Weitzel's accounts.

The largest sum mentioned in the indictments is $3,000 representing a note of the Bay Lumber Company, Beattyville, Ky. Weitzel, it is alleged failed to account for additional assets, or for the note's collection. Eighteen other charges involve sums embezzled, it is alleged by failure to keep records or make accounting. The alleged shortage will aggregate $8,000, it is declared. Weitzel, arraigned before Judge A. M. J. Cochran, entered a plea of not guilty.

Some Pig Tale, This

Fat Hog Falls Thro' Culvert, Is Found Alive Six Weeks Later

Preachersville, Ky., Oct. 20.

About six weeks ago Tom Gill drove a bunch of hogs, about 60 in number to Rowland for J. M. Cress. When arriving at the stock yards, where the bunch was counted, it was found that one of the hogs was missing. Mr. Gill thought it had crept through some opening in the roadside fence, but a general search and much subsequent inquiry is failed to locate the missing hog. As the hog weighed about 275 pounds and hogs were then selling at nine cents, there was a dead loss of almost $25. Last Thursday the head stock driver, W. T. Blankenship, when on the road looking to find the missing swine where it had been all the time, in plain sight of all who passed the road during the time the hog was gone.

Near the residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Lawrence their spring branch leaves their premises and runs under the pike, and into the field below. At the end of the culvert the water had washed out quite a sink hole about three feet wide and three feet deep, and drift and mud had filled the culvert and it was thereby put out of commission. Here in this narrow prison the hog had fallen while being crowded along by the rest of the drove. As the man in charge did not see it fall in, it was "out of sight, out of mind." Here for six weeks it had subsided on the bark of the sycamore roots and the least possible amount of water during the continued drought. When first lost it was fat enough to butcher; when found it was a shadow, lean, lank and positively disgusting in appearance. After a few days careful nursing and dieting the hollow-sided spectre is feeling like a new hog. About five days before, young Blankenship, while with a drove of cattle, saw the hog in this sink hole, but failed to connect it with the missing one, which by this time had about been given up for good. He thought it was only a rambling roadside hog and could walk back through the culvert to where it could regain the highway. Thinking no more about it at the time he was much surprised to see the same hog in the same place on the morning of the discovery and curiosity prompted him to investigate which resulted in piggy being restored to his owner. Moral:—Our county officials while out inspecting Dixie Highways in their "autobombs" would do well to hook up old Dobbin and inspect some of our East End roads which need something and need it badly. The above mentioned culvert is not the only one which is "blind," several can be found, and some culverts are now positively dangerous.

Hundley—Davis

Popular Local Young Couple Are Married in Danville Thursday.

Their host of friends here were given quite a surprise, Thursday when Miss Sara Hundley and Clay Davis were driven to Danville by Harry Carter Thursday afternoon, accompanied by Miss Gertrude Wilkinson, and were united in wedlock's holy bonds by Rev. H. C. Garrison, of the Christian church. Afterwards they took a train for Indianapolis and other points where they will visit relatives and spend their honeymoon. They will then return to Lincoln, and will be at home at the Capt. B. F. Powell farm, which Mr. Davis has leased for the next year. The bride is one of Stanford's fairest daughters, a real beauty and very attractive and accomplished. She is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Laura Hundley. The groom is a son of H. B. Davis and is an energetic, progressive young farmer. Both will have the heartiest congratulations and best wishes of a host of friends as they go together through life.

Historic House Burns

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher Herring Lose Dwelling and All Contents.

Preachersville, Ky., Oct. 20.

The stone residence of Mr. and Mrs. Fisher Herring near here, just over the line in Garrard on Drake's creek, burned down about eight o'clock Saturday night. Very little of the household furniture was saved, the fire having gained such headway before neighbors arrived on the scene. Mrs. Herring had probably the largest and costliest collection of antique furniture in Central Kentucky all of which was a total loss. Very little of their library was saved and a lot of jewelry and manuscripts were consumed. No insurance. Mrs. Herring was visiting in Lancaster at the time, while Mr. Herring was at Preachersville. Some of the neighbors made heroic efforts to enter the building but were repulsed by the flames which came as if from a roaring furnace. The structure was a large two-story stone building and the interior wood work was all cut out by a whip saw and put together by hand forged nails. It was built prior to 1794 by Rev. Thomas Williams, an early Baptist preacher, who was one of the thirteen original members who organized Drake's Creek church in 1801. The house was built with high, narrow windows and heavy oaken doors, with several port holes commanding each side from whence the rifle men might repel the Indians. This house was one of the four original "Stone Forts" built at that remote period in Drake's creek valley. Three of the number burned, two of which were rebuilt, one again burning a few years afterward.

Miss Dolly Ballard, the 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Ballard, is critically ill of typhoid fever.

The protracted meeting at the Baptist church conducted by Rev. J. W. Beagle, the pastor, closed last week with 14 additions.

Coal Going Up

Mines Can't Get Cars To Ship As Railroads Are So Busy.

Local coal dealers are warning their patrons of the rapid increase in price of coal and urging them to lay their winter supply early. J. H. Baughman & Company say that coal which they formerly bought at $1.75 a ton is now costing them $3 and there's no telling where it will stop. The increase in price is said to be due largely to the shortage of cars in which to ship out black diamonds from the mines in eastern Kentucky. The railroads are congested everywhere with freight business. Times were never so prosperous with them, and it has proven an impossibility to obtain cars to meet the demand. It is said that the great demand for coal for steam purposes has put the price of nut and slack coal out of sight, and the mines have contracts which will take their full normal winter's production. If the car shortage continues, however, it can only signify that the mines will deliver only a proportion of their contract output which means inevitable commercial distress and possible suffering in the cold weather. The situation has improved little if any in the last few weeks.

WILSON AT CHICAGO.

In three speeches in Chicago Thursday, where he was welcomed by great cheering crowds in the streets, and at meetings, President Wilson declared the hour had come for rallying the forces of society under a common banner, a sort of "renaissance of patriotic responsibility" and that women would display a distinguished part in the new order, while the employer who would not voluntarily consider the employees' conditions would be made by law to do so. A delegation of the National Women's party attempted an anti-Wilson demonstration and were roughly handled in a near-riot, their banners being taken from them and trampled.

COULDN'T SIDESTEP LAW.

The proprietor of another State line liquor emporium, this one in Whitley county, must go to jail thru failure of his efforts to circumvent the local option laws of Kentucky by negotiating various steps of the transaction across the State line. William Logan is the defendant and a fine of $100 and a jail sentence of forty days were affirmed by the Court of Appeals this week.

WILSON A WINNER

ACCORDING TO "STRAW VOTE" ALL OVER THE NATION

Two Big Dailies Practically Concede Big Democratic Victory—Result of "Straw Vote" Here

The Cincinnati Enquirer Sunday published the result of the "straw vote" which its correspondent took in Stanford on Court Day, the 9th, on Main street among farmers and stockmen in town that day and in the business houses. The result was 209 for Wilson; 49 for Hughes. The changes in vote were 1 Democrat to Republican, 2 Republican to Democrat, 5 Progressives to Republican and 4 Progressives to Democrat. There were 3 votes for Prohibition and two switched from Progressive to Prohibition.

This "straw vote" was taken absolutely fairly and impartially, and is in line with the results which are appearing in the straw vote which the Enquirer is taking in other parts of Kentucky and which show that without doubt this state will roll up an old time majority for Woodrow Wilson on November 7th.

The straw vote which the Enquirer is taking all over the country in connection with the New York Herald seems to indicate the election of Wilson without a shadow of a doubt. No poll is being taken in the southern states which are always reliably democratic, but the vote in the central, western, northern and eastern states, shows that Wilson will carry a sufficient number of them to insure his election.

One of the surprises of the straw voting has been the runaway race that Wilson is making in Ohio, upon which the republicans had counted upon carrying for a certainty. Many are inclined to view these "straw votes" as of no consequence or as not indicating how the election will go. However, it only need be said that these two great daily papers have been taking this straw vote before each presidential election for the past 15 or 20 years and they have always forecasted the result of the following election. Not a single time, has the general result ever been different from what their straw vote taken beforehand, indicated.

For this reason when such states as New York, West Virginia, Connecticut, Maryland, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Wisconsin, Missouri, Oklahoma, Minnesota, South Dakota, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Colorado, Arizona, Ohio and Tennessee are showing up with good majorities for Wilson in the straw vote. Democrats and many others believe that all doubt as to the result on Nov. 7th has been removed. The states which are showing for Hughes in the straw votes are: New Jersey, Delaware, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, California, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Nebraska, Kansas, North Dakota, Oregon, Wyoming, Nevada and New Mexico.

Of course, there will be changes in a number of the states shown to be favorable to one side or the other, but the general result seems to indicate that Wilson is a sure winner. The great masses of the laboring people, and the workmen all over the country are for him. A surprise has been thrown into republican ranks everywhere also by the practically solid support which Wilson is receiving in states where women have the right to vote. This is believed to be the result of Wilson's continued policy toward keeping the United States out of war. The women do not want their husbands and sons sacrificed, and their homes desolated. They know that Wilson stands for peace, and do not know what might happen should Hughes win, so seemingly are not anxious to make a change, but want to let well enough alone.

An indication of how things look in Ohio, which now seems certain to go for Wilson, was contained in a news story in the Cincinnati Enquirer Wednesday which said that the Republican leaders of that state had secretly passed out the word to their workers over the state to "let Hughes slide" and to devote their efforts to saving their candidates for governor and United States senator. According to the Enquirer, the republican leaders see that Wilson is certain to carry Ohio but think by letting the national campaign alone, and letting Wilson have things his own way, they may yet be able to elect their candidates for the two state offices.

The New York Herald, which is bitterly fighting Wilson, says that the states which are in the Wilson column have 312 electoral votes, of which 266 will elect. The Herald says that the republicans seem to be at a standstill, while the democrats are forging ahead. The Herald declares that New York, Illinois, Ohio and Indiana will decide the election. A special dispatch from Boston in the Herald says: "Wilson sentiment is growing alarmingly." The Telegram, evening edition of the Herald, probably the most vehement anti-Wilson organ in New York, says under the heading, "Campaign Slump. Worries Leaders of Republicans," that fear of the loss of the labor vote has added to other causes of apprehension among the Republicans and that with the presidential election less than four weeks off, republican managers admit that the campaign, so far as the Republican party is concerned, "has struck a slump."

J. H. LIVINGSTON.

What We Are Up Against

The country newspapers are being hit hard and often these days. The Junction City Picayune has had to suspend publication on account of the high cost of print paper. Weekly papers at London, Pineville and Columbia up in this end of the state have been reduced in size from eight to four pages. Every time a paper drummer come to town he reports a higher price on all kinds of paper than a country printer uses. Paper upon which the I. J. is printed, which the first of the year cost about $40 a ton, is now $140 a ton, and yet some of our friends can't understand why we had to increase the price to $1.50 a year. Every newspaper that sells for $1 a year loses money on the bare cost of the white paper alone in addition to the work and other materials used to reduce the paper. And the end is not yet, for the paper houses say it's not a question of price but of getting paper at all.

Senator Ollie M. James, of Kentucky, was "jailed" at Coshocton, O., one night last week. And he wasn't convicted of any crime, either. The facts were that all the hotels in that city were closed, and when Senator James spoke there on behalf of Wilson, the Sheriff, who is also the Jailer of Ohio, invited Kentucky's great statesman to be his guest, which invitation was gladly accepted. Senator James has made a number of speeches in Ohio, and always before tremendous audiences. He is one of the powers on the stump for Democracy and feels certain that Wilson will be re-elected. Senator James speaks at Richmond, Saturday, the 21st, and quite a number of democrats up in this section are planning to go over to hear him.

Editor Woodson May, already a State Forester, has been appointed a member of the State Literacy Board by Gov. Stanley. Woodson seems to be "in good" with the powers-that-be at Frankfort; and if he perseveres
he may land a real job yet.

Why Mothers Want Wilson Re-elected

"Why are you for Woodrow Wilson?" I asked a mountain woman.
"Because I have ten boys, six of them voting, and I'd rather have them in the fields than to have them either shot down or shooting others down in the trenches. I praise Woodrow Wilson for keeping our boys safe at home."—Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart.
This mountain woman has stated the very strongest reason why the mothers of this country are for Woodrow Wilson and are asking their boys to support him. It is said that in Berlin and Paris, in Vienna and in London every woman you see on the street is dressed in mourning.
Death has invaded every home in all these cities. Either a brother, a father or a husband has been killed in the trenches. We want none of this for our mothers, daughters and wives.
We cannot spare our young men from the fields to fight. Peace is the greatest blessing any country can enjoy, and war the most terrible thing that can befall a nation. Woodrow Wilson has kept this nation at peace and Charles Hughes may criticize the way he has done it and indicates that it should have been done some other way, but the fact remains that we have peace, and the others of this country, like the mountain woman, are satisfied to have peace and are not the least bit interested in the fact that Mr. Hughes is opposed to what Wilson has done to secure it.—Elizabethtown News.

Everything that can be said against the Wilson Administration has been said. Every attack that can be made on the Wilson policies has been made.
Not an issue can be raised that has not been raised. For all practical purposes the record is complete. Yet President Wilson is stronger today than at any other time since the campaign began, and his strength is increasing with amazing rapidity.

The Republicans have no hope of victory except through the corrupt power of money in politics, except through the brute force of political organization and except through the appeal to German prejudice against the President.

The peace of the country today rests wholly in the hands of the President of the United States. A single mistake, a single blunder, a single ill-advised action, and he can plunge 100,000,000 people into the midst of the most devastating war that mankind has ever known. There are no ascribable limits to the calamities in which a tactless, an obstinate or an ill-formed President can involve the Nation.

To elect Mr. Hughes is to elect an enigma, a conundrum, a puzzle, a conjecture. So far as knowledge of his policies and purposes are concerned, the voters might as well blindfold themselves and make a President out of the first man they happen to slap on the back in a street crowd.

They would be taking essentially the same chances that they are taking with Mr. Hughes.

Mr. Hughes might make a good President after he had two or three years' experience in the office; but to train him now is like putting a green engineer in charge of the Twentieth Century Limited. The green engineer might not wreck the train, but would be good luck, not good management.

To elect the American people study the situation that confronts them the swifter the tide must run toward President Wilson. When they re-elect him, they are not gambling with destiny. They know where he stands on every question of the campaign. They know his record. They know that his Administration will move steadily ahead. They know that he represents American idealism in its truest form. They know that he has kept the faith and that he is one of the greatest leaders that American democracy has raised up to the glory of the Republic.

Why Hughes? Nobody has answered that question and nobody can answer it except by appealing to passion, prejudice and partisanship.

YOU KNOW HIM

Every town and county has its knocker. He knocks on the church.
He knocks on the school. He knocks on the President. He knocks on Congress. He knocks on the doctor, and the preacher is the "knocker-of-all." He was born wrong side up, bad end foremost, and has never been able to get his bearings. He may be fat, he may be lean, but he is always mean.
When the time comes for his "vacate" and he goes out feet foremost, few tears are shed and less praises said, as "the knocker no longer knocks." It is better to be a "booster" than to be a knocker.—Cadiz Record.

The principles upon which our nation, our commonwealth, our community are founded can be well given in these few words, "United We Stand. Divided We Fall." It has been true in the past, it is true today, it will always be true that an institution, which includes faculty, pupils and patrons in which discord exists, in which eternal strife holds sway, cannot long continue as a successful and progressive institution. Is not a public school an institution which should be governed by the same principle which has proved so valuable in the building up and holding together of larger institutions in the past?
The next problem that confronts us is the determination of what composes a school. It is made up of the teachers, or teachers, students and patrons. Or are the patrons and their interests simply a minor detail not to be considered by the two former august bodies? The writer believes that it takes all of the above mentioned parts to form the whole. Then the interests of one should be the interest of all. If a teacher is striving to do all that he can to make the institution a model one and by so doing use devices and methods which have never before appeared in the school curriculum, he is immediately stamped as one who is striving to defeat the aims of the regular school work which have formerly been used and long since gone out of style. All of the extra work possible is heaped upon him, his every action is watched and no opportunity is lost to prove that he is not doing class work in the prescribed course. Is this standing together for the best interests of the school in which both patrons and student body should be vitally interested?
In the school where this state of affairs exists it is usually noticed that not all of the patrons, but a few, usually a very few, are responsible for it. May we hope that in the near future all such members of this type will be forced to look elsewhere for their school facilities and their places be filled by broad minded and progressive citizens.

An unusual amount of interest was manifested last Saturday in the school trustee election. Isaiah White and Walter Moser, were judges and Shelby Hubble, clerk. The polls were opened promptly at one o'clock with Messrs. Wm. Ellis and W. D. Hanson contending candidates for the office. The votes cast were 49 for Mr. Ellis and 29 for Mr. Hanson, the latter being the former trustee and yet defeated for the second term will give the good will and good wishes of a splendid school for next year when he retires from his office the first of next March. Mr. Ellis is a man who will make a good trustee as he is as equally interested in the good work of the school.

The school celebrated Columbus Day by going on a chestnut hunt. Forest, Lawrence and Mary Mobley entered school Monday. Their father recently moved his family here from Bradfordsville and is operating the blacksmith shop on Main street.

Marion Gray, who has come here to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Johnson, is a new pupil in the third grade.

COBURN'S MINSTRELS PLEASE

As usual Coburn's Minstrels drew a capacity house here last Friday night and, as usual the old reliable company gave a performance which pleased everyone. Charlie Gano, Lester Lucas, Tom Post and a new singing comedian, Billy Clifford manned the heavy guns and were better than ever. The company played to a large audience at Danville Thursday night.

Middleburg

It is pleasing indeed to see with what enthusiasm those Democrats, who supported Senator Charles F. Montgomery in the August primary are now supporting Hon. Harvey Helm. This is characteristic of Casey Democrats. Very few of them "fly the coop" to their credit be it said.

The Fogle farm two miles below town on the Liberty pike will be sold Tuesday. Several men have looked the farm over and a good crowd is expected.

The W. M. U. ladies of the Baptist church shipped a barrel of potatoes to the Kentucky Baptist Children's Home Monday. The potatoes were contributed by the Sunday School and brought Sunday morning in flour sacks, paper sacks, shoe boxes and any other old way they chose to bring them.

The teacher of the eighth grade in the graded school here some weeks ago asked her pupils to name two of the greatest lawmakers, either dead or living. One answered Thomas Jefferson and Harvey Helm. We are reminded that the age in which the one lived and that in which the other is living are somewhat remote one from the other.

The largest and most appreciative audience that has ever assembled here to hear a political speech greeted Hon. Harvey Helm, when he arrived here Thursday night of last week. The College Hall was packed to its utmost capacity with Democrats from almost every part of the county. Mr. Helm was a little weak from exposure and much speaking but his speech was a good one, and greatly appreciated by the large audience. His speech has dispelled the apathy that has usually prevailed among Democrats here in presidential election and they seem now to be determined to fight it out to the last ditch regardless of the great odds against them.

E. C. Moore came up with Harvey Helm from Liberty and did the introducing after announcing that Hon. H. V. McClesney would speak at Liberty Saturday.

Harvey Helm can congratulate himself on the success of his trip to the county in arousing Democrats to action and causing them to see the responsibility that rests upon each of them.

Mrs. Williams and children, of Cincinnati are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Hall and other friends this week. Mr. and Mrs. Williams have many friends here who deeply sympathize with them in the loss of their little daughter, Edith Marie. While it is very sad and lonesome without her, we would say to the bereaved one: "Weep not as those who have no hope" for we know that little Edith was a flower budding on earth to bloom in heaven and is now waiting with beckoning hands for the loved one.

Mrs. Annie Kennedy and daughters, of Stanford, visited her parents, Rev. Long and wife and sister, Mrs. Sam Baugh over Sunday.

Mr. C. M. Young sold his family mare "Old Fan" to Joe Skidmore last week. He still has two young milk cows and three large calves to sell.

Preparedness!

Are you ready for Winter? Is your system clear of catarrh? Have Summer colds left you entirely? Have you overcome all effects of Summer foods? If you haven't, restore your body to full vigor with the old standby

PERUNA

It's the tonic that clears away the congestion, purifies the blood and invigorates your whole system.

Peruna, in tablet form, is handy to carry with you. It gives you a chance to check a cold when it starts.

Manalin Tablets are the ideal laxative. They form no habit and have no unpleasant effects. Your druggist can supply you. The Peruna Company, Columbus, Ohio

This Simple Laxative a Household Necessity

DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN SHOULD HAVE A PLACE IN EVERY HOME

Constipation, or inaction of the bowels, a condition that nearly every one experiences with more or less frequency, is the direct cause of much disease. When the bowels become clogged with refuse from the stomach, foul gases and poisons are generated, and unless the congestion is quickly relieved the system becomes weakened and most susceptible to attack.

Various remedies to relieve constipation are prescribed, but many of these contain cathartic or purgative agents that are harsh and violent in their action and shock the system. The most effective remedy is the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin that is sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

The Hon. John D. Keister, of Brandywine, W. Va., who has represented his district in the State Legislature for six years, writes that he uses Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and finds it a splendid laxative, easy to take and mild, yet positive, in its action, and that it should be in every household for use when needed.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by druggists in all parts of the United States and costs only fifty cents a bottle. It contains no opiate or narcotic drug, does not gripe and is recommended as a family laxative, mild enough for the tiniest babe, yet sufficiently powerful to act easily on the strongest constitution.

To avoid imitations and ineffective substitutes be sure to get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. See that a facsimile of Dr. Caldwell's signature and his portrait appear on the yellow card in which the bottle is packed. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 455 Washington, St., Monticello, Illinois.

A Paintsville, Ky., Man Gets Advice from Normal Man to Take Tanlac; He's Well

"I suffered from stomach trouble for four years. I spent hundreds of dollars for treatments and medicines but got no real relief until I took Tanlac, the new tonic," said Mr. M. Cordell, of Paintsville, Ky., who lives on Main street.

"I had to be very careful what I ate, as everything seemed to give me indigestion.

"My father-in-law, Wm. Bays, a prominent mill owner at Normal, Ky. knew of my illness and advised me to take Tanlac. Well, I took his advice and am pleased to report that it gave me complete relief.

"I am no longer troubled with my stomach. I can eat any kind of food without distress. My appetite is fine and I sleep better. Feel good when I get up in the mornings.

"I consider Tanlac a wonderful remedy and believe it is the cause of my present good health."

Mr. Cordell believes in the old adage that "Everyone is useful in this world who lightens the burdens of another," that is why he is prompted to give this statement about Tanlac. If by his advice even one person is relieved of misery he will have been repaid for his trouble.

Tanlac is a tonic which aids digestion, promotes healthy, refreshing sleep and strengthens the nerves.

It is purely vegetable and herein lies one of its great virtues. It is reconstructive—no destructive.

Tanlac is being specially introduced in Stanford at The Penny Drug Store, E. R. Coleman, Manager.

Tanlac can now be obtained in following nearby cities: Moreland, Abraham Minks, Hustonville, Adams Bros.; McKinney, True & Co.; Ellisburg, W. C. Bryant; Crab Orchard, Lyne Bros.; Brodhead, John Robbins; Lancaster, R. E. McRoberts; Bee Lick, J. Reynolds & Son; Waynesburg, W. A. Horton.

Best for Liver and Bowels, for Biliousness, Sour Stomach and Constipation

Get a 10-cent box now.
Furred Tongue, Bad Colds, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

TRIBUTE TO REV. J. H. PENCE. A Clayton, Ill., paper tells of a delightful affair given for Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Pence, pastor of the Methodist church, who is a former Lincoln county boy. The paper said: The Methodist folks gave their minister a pounding Friday night. This was the kind of a pounding a preacher enjoys. It was a complete surprise to Rev. Pence and wife. It was a very cordial reception of the pastor and wife for their third year.

of service to this charge. Each one brought a pound and some of them were not satisfied with a single pound, but gave several. The compliments were bestowed upon the part of the parishioners. Prof. Brewster said the return of Rev. Pence to this charge was the wish of every member of the parish without a dissenting voice. This must be a great pleasure to Mr. and Mrs. Pence who expressed their appreciation in the most hearty words. They had a supper for the entire congregation, prepared by the church folks. The announcement in last Enterprise fooled no one but the preacher and wife. But they will recover and it is the aspiration for better and larger things in this third year. They are splendid people. The folks in the other churches rejoice at their return to Clayton.

Lakeport, N. H.—"Our little girl 8 years of age was in a debilitated, run-down condition and had a stubborn cough so she was weak and ailing all the time. Nothing helped her until we tried Vinol. Then her appetite increased and she is strong and well, and I wish other parents of weak, delicate children would try Vinol."—Geo. A. Collins.

This is because Vinol contains beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptonates and glycerophosphates which she needed.

What would he give for the coffee you serve?

Like a million other women, you can serve coffee that he would give most anything to have—coffee which starts the day "right" for all.

Everyone loves the rich flavor of Arbuckles' Coffee. Of all the coffees in America today, it is by far the most popular!

One woman says: "My husband used to swallow his coffee and hurry off. Now we have Arbuckles' and you'd think it was Sunday the way he lingers over his breakfast."

Until you try Arbuckles' you will never know what a difference good coffee can make in your home.

Today there are whole towns where Arbuckles is practically the only coffee used. In one State, alone, in a year, four pounds of Arbuckles' Coffee was used for every man, woman and child in the State—four times as many pounds of coffee as the population of the State! Arbuckle Bros., New York.

Women Once Invalids

Now in Good Health Through Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Say it is Household Necessity. Doctor Called it a Miracle.

All women ought to know the wonderful effects of taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound even on those who seem hopelessly ill. Here are three actual cases:

Harrisburg, Penn.—“When I was single I suffered a great deal from female weakness because my work compelled me to stand all day. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for that and was made stronger by its use. After I was married I took the Compound again for a female trouble and after three months I passed what the doctor called a growth. He said it was a miracle that it came away as one generally goes under the knife to have them removed. I never want to be without your Compound in the house.”—Mrs. FRANK KNOBL, 1642 Fulton St., Harrisburg, Penn.

Hardly Able to Move.

Albert Lea, Minn.—“For about a year I had sharp pains across my back and hips and was hardly able to move around the house. My head would ache and I was dizzy and had no appetite. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills, I am feeling stronger than for years. I have a little boy eight months old and am doing my work all alone. I would not be without your remedies in the house as there are none like them.”—Mrs. F. E. YOST, 611 Water St., Albert Lea, Minn.

Three Doctors Gave Her Up.

Pittsburg, Penn.—“Your medicine has helped me wonderfully. When I was a girl 18 years old I was always sickly and delicate and suffered from irregularities. Three doctors gave me up and said I would go into consumption. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and with the third bottle began to feel better. I soon became regular and I got strong and shortly after I was married. Now I have two nice stout healthy children and am able to work hard every day.”—Mrs. CLEMENTINA DUERRING, 34 Gardner St., Troy Hill, Pittsburg, Penn.

All women are invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special advice. Confidential.

Crab Orchard.

Mrs. Flem Jones has just received the sad news of the death of her sister, Mrs. Anna Mayfield, of Elcentro, Cal. She was before her marriage Miss Anna Stuart of this place. She was a splendid christian woman who devoted her whole life to helping make life bright for others—living her religion day by day—making friends wherever she lived. For several months she was a great sufferer from a combination of diseases and she bore her trials with christian fortitude. Two brothers, Messrs Holdam and Kilburn Stuart were with her family to minister to her last hours. Her last caresses were to a fond husband and her two children, who are heart broken over their great loss. Out tenderest sympathy is extended to the fond sister here who could not be near in death's dark hour to bid her good bye.

Plenty rain fall is going to benefit fall grass some.

For some reason we failed to state a baby girl had come to bless the life of Mrs. Martha Chapell, who was Miss Martha Broughton and whose husband was killed in an auto accident in Florida a short time ago.

Mrs. Broughton has about completed the nice cottage she erected on the spot where the Lindsay home stood.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins went to the cities this week for their fall goods, and will bring back everything to please people in every line of goods.

Eighteen dollars were realized by the Junior Endeavor entertainment at the college. The little tots acquitted themselves in a most creditable manner and went through the entire program without a single mistake. Mrs. Skiles and Mrs. George Stephenson desire to thank the mothers for their preparation of the children's costumes and thank all who patronized the little ones' entertainment.

Louisville, Ky.—“When I was in need of a woman's medicine I saw Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription advertised. I was nervous, tired out, and it seemed as if I was unable to meet my work. After I began using the ‘Prescription’ I became better and so much stronger. I used five bottles of this remedy and was entirely cured. I have never been bothered since. He was widely connected in Madison county and has many relatives in Lincoln. His wife before marriage was Miss Elizabeth Reid of Mt. Sterling.

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—“I was not able to do anything for nearly six months,” writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, “and was down in bed for three months.”

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health.”

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

SOME CENTER SHOTS

J. Frank Hanly, Prohibition candidate for president, fired the opening gun of his campaign at Aurora, Ill., Friday morning, Sept. 8, at 8:50 o'clock. Speaking from the rear of the candidates' special train, Mr. Hanly said:

"We begin this morning a campaign, not for place or position, but for the establishment in power of a great cause affecting profoundly the social, moral and economic life of the nation.

"In his speech of acceptance President Wilson showed concern for the women and children of Mexico, and took credit to himself and his party for the interest they had taken in the children of our land, saying in the course of his remarks:

"We have effected the emancipation of the children of the country by releasing them from hurtful labor."

"My answer to that is: Not yet, Mr. President, not yet. You may have done something toward the emancipation of the children of the country by taking them out of hurtful labor, but you have not yet emancipated them. You have not removed the one great barrier across the path of their progress and development, nor so much as touched the fetters that bind them."

"I know, and you know, and every thoughtful man and woman in the nation knows, that there can be no real emancipation of the children of the country while the beverage liquor traffic holds the warrant of the nation for their spoilation. Every defective child—the sightless, the deaf, the deformed, the mentally and physically disinherited—reaching in numbers far into the thousands, is a refutation of your claim.

"The God's truth is, Mr. President that with full knowledge of this fact, so indisputable as to be admitted by all men everywhere, neither you nor your party even remotely contemplate the doing of the one thing which alone can emancipate them compared with this, the little thing you have done is infinitesimal. In the years of your incumbency of the great office, you have lifted no finger and spoken no word in support of action by the federal congress, the only body that possesses the power of emancipation."

"You have gone to the halls of Congress for many things, but you have been careful enough not to ask or suggest any step looking toward the emancipation of the children of the country from their fateful heritage. You have been and are, and your party has been and is content that the curse of alcohol shall abide with them and upon them."

"In his speech at Los Angeles, Charles Evans Hughes, Republican candidate for the presidency, made this declaration:

"I should protect human life, human safety, human comfort, * * * I should protect women. I should protect children. If we take a long look ahead we cannot afford to trifle with the future of the race."

"But neither Mr. Hughes nor the Republican party offers any program of protection to human life, human safety, human comfort, or for the protection of women and children. Both he and his party stand for the continuation and perpetuation in this nation, under governmental sanction, of the one thing that, more than all else, impairs the happiness and welfare of women and despoils the childhood of the nation. By governmental partnership with the liquor traffic, they are trifling with the future of the race. Every sociologist, every criminologist, and every scientific laboratory in all the land, worthy of repute or credence, tells them that, and they propose to continue to trifle with the future of the race.

"Both these men conceal their thoughts in evasion, and are content to tickle the ears of their hearers with toothless platitudes and harmless generalities.

"The Prohibition Party offers a program definite and certain. We are prepared to really emancipate the childhood of the nation and to protect human safety, human comfort, to protect women, to protect children. We mean to trifle no longer with the future of the race. Clothe us with power and we'll end the reign of the liquor traffic in this republic, disenthral the nation and set men, women and children free."

Ira Landrith, Prohibition candidate for Vice-President, speaking at Aurora, Ill., Sept. 8th, said in part:

"It is not at all inappropriate that this campaign should begin in Aurora. We start in the morning of a new day. We begin at Aurora and expect to go to the sunset and back to the sunrise. When we finish this campaign, we will have lifted the Prohibition Party from the realm of political jest to where it will become the serious consideration of every political leader in the United States.

"We are determined to convince the American people that the chief issue in politics is not the tariff nor preparedness, nor even what the old parties understand by 'Americanism,' but the emancipation of Uncle Sam from silent side-partnership in every brewery, distillery and brothel under the Stars and Stripes.

"We therefore invite the suffrage of every man and woman who would rather be right than regular, decent than Democratic, respectable than Republican, and a straight, good citizen than a straight partisan. We would have every patriot as independent in politics as every grogshop keeper now is. Like the grogshop keeper, we want the good citizen to vote in the interest of the thing which chiefly concerns him—not a nefarious business, but a stainless flag.

"No other political party has dared to mention in its platform, either in criticism or commendation, the licensed liquor traffic. The average American hates a coward, even when that coward is an organized political party. The Prohibition Party, so far from being a party of one idea, has dodged in its platform no essential idea in the policies of government, where as the democratic and republican parties have been as silent as the sphinx on the 'one idea' for which primarily we stand."
